What are the predicted effects of global warming?

What types of climate changes has the Earth experienced in the past?

This course is one of the core courses toward earning the Climate Change Certificate!