Come and Enjoy the Thrill of Traveling Around the World!

This class is designed to make students aware of and familiar with:

- The basic concepts of geography
- The various climates, natural environments, cultures, economies and politics in the major regions of the world
- The current activities and problems of major world regions under the background of climate change and globalization